Dear Dr. Frisch,

Thank you for sharing your personal insight and clinical expertise on "Working with Defenses in the Here and Now." We have found this training to be very useful as we begin our journey as intern clinicians at CIP. This training reminded us of how helpful this tool can be on a professional level.

We loved learning about character defenses and naming them in the room. Moreover, we learned about ourselves and our own defenses. We are grateful that you set aside your time to prepare and present this important information. We thoroughly enjoyed this process. You are a fabulous speaker, entertaining, and we'd love to have you back!

Sincerely,
Track A Interns
